Expect more

And much more….

Intelligent Review Routing (IRR) can be applied to maximize Google Business Profile or Facebook reviews, and is included in our SEO Master subscription level. (Learn more)

You get real-time notifications for every new Google Business Profile review, as well as real-time notifications for every update including detail on what the reviewer changed. And, of course, deep-dive reporting for all the reviews you've obtained over the years in your Google Business Profile. (Learn more)

When you are using IRR to get an average of 12 to 13% response rate for Google Business Profile reviews, you can still expect to get a 20 to 22% response rate for native Nearby Now reviews. And, of course, our exclusive checkins (with optional photos or videos) will give you local ranking value from every job.

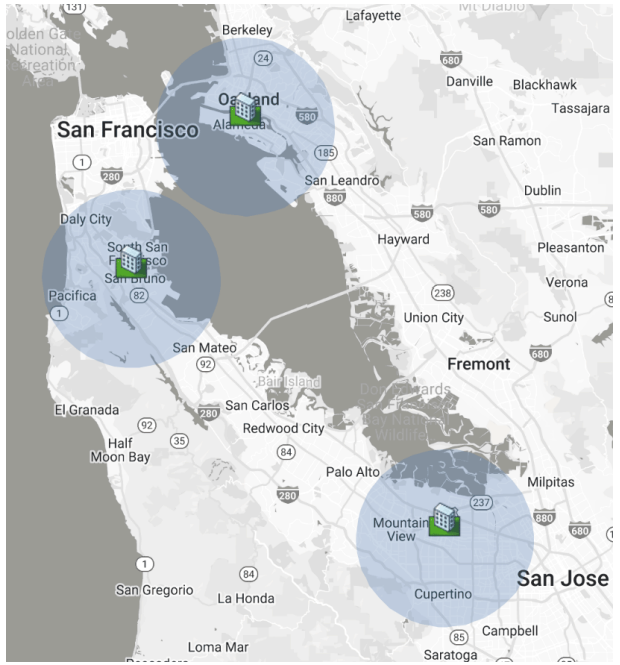
Spot-On for Google on top of Intelligent Review Routing will automatically route any potential Google reviewer to your Google Business Profile that is closest to them. No longer will potential reviewers drop out because they need to pick and choose among multiple possible Google location profiles. Or will you miss out on reviews you could earn because you have to choose only one of your location profiles at which to collect reviews. And every SEO Master subscription includes up to three Google locations. (Learn more)



When you display your reviews to build direct reputation and rankings for your own website, you can include your Google reviews and can assign hyperlocal locations to those reviews so they drive value where you served the customer, not where your office is. (Learn more)
